EXPERIENCE
JORDAN

“Petra, the great Ancient City that lies half-hidden in the wind-blown landscape in southern Jordan, is one of the world’s most treasured Unesco Heritage Sites. Voted by popular ballot in 2007 as one of the ‘New Seven Wonders of the World’, it has retained its magnetism even through times of strife in the wider region.”

“Wadi Rum, the spectacular desert that T E Lawrence described as “vast, echoing and godlike”, with its rocks like melted wax emerging on the skyline, their colours shifting in the light and alien shapes forming from the cavities.”

- Amelia Gentleman, The Guardian

EXPERIENCE
JORDAN

“Midday by the Dead Sea and, 400m below sea level, the heat is suffocating, making the swirling water we’re wading through immensely welcome. Above us tower the stunning orangy-red sides of a narrow cleft through the sandstone. It’s not hard to see why it has earned itself the moniker of the Grand Canyon of Jordan.”

- Jane Knight, The Times UK

EXPERIENCE
JORDAN

“The Jordanian people are known for their warmth and hospitality, making it easy for visitors to forge connections through food, traditional activities, and alternative modes of exploration.” - Jennifer Kotlewski, kimkim.com

EXPERIENCE
JORDAN

“The Dead Sea serves as one of Jordan’s most unique experiences, where as a result of the high salt level, you will float effortlessly atop the water. Don’t forget to slather yourself in the natural mud, which has proven healing properties, due to the high concentration of salts and minerals, for physical ailments.” - Sahar Esfandiari, The Culture Trip

JORDAN

“The port of Aqaba has the kind of breezy warmth and laid-back spirit of most seaside towns. With clean beaches, warm water, and outstanding visibility, Jordan is a diver’s oasis. Every mile counts on this wedge of coastline, with some of the best dive sites in the Red Sea.”
- Andrew Evans, National Geographic

JORDAN

“The greatest adventure in Jordan remains on land—the nearly 400-mile Jordan Trail runs the full length of the country, from the ruins of Umm Qais (on the northern border) all the way down to the Dead Sea, though Petra and Wadi Rum, and finally to the peaceful beach in Aqaba. Most hikers take around 40 days to complete the full through-hike, passing through 52 villages, where families often host them.” - Andrew Evans, National Geographic

JORDAN

Jordan has so many treasures, both its natural environment, and its people. At Experience Jordan we are committed that the experiences we offer help to protect and replenish the environment and create wealth and better futures for communities across Jordan.

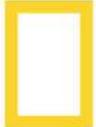

EXPERIENCE
JORDAN

We are one of the companies that helped with the development of the Jordan Trail. The trail is helping to create new adventures and generating income across Jordan. The result is a 650Km 36-day hiking trail featuring some of the most unique landscapes in the world and passing through some of Jordan's poorest communities.

Sections of the hike, such as Dana to Petra have been acknowledged by National Geographic as one of the top 15 multi-day hikes in the world.

EXPERIENCE
JORDAN

The expertise and knowledge gained during the scouting of the hiking trail assisted us with the development of the bike trail. We developed The Jordan Bike Trail - a new, long-distance, mixed-track cycling trail crossing and connecting the length of Jordan from Um Qais in the north to Aqaba and the Red Sea in the south. The route can be completed in around 15 days and was designed as a north to south route. Care was taken on the uphill to route via more stable terrain, and the downhill include more off-road trails. The bike trail also offers some optional day trip detours to pick up some of the sites not directly on the trail, such as the Jerash, Amman and the Dead Sea.

JORDAN

Out of a love for nature, we started weekly hikes and cultural experiences every weekend, where tourists, expats and local Jordanians could come together, get out of the city and experience Jordan's lesser known treasures. On each of these trips we teach people about the philosophy of "Leave No Trace", and spreading the word about keeping the country clean. We always finish our hikes collecting extra trash and leaving each route cleaner than when we started.
